Class Will

We, the Seniors of '63, being of sound mind and body, do hereby solemnly swear that this is our last will and testament.

I, Melody Belnap, will to my little brother, Ernie, my ability to get along so well with Mr. Pease and Miss Bassett and to Virginia Choate all my leftover brownie points in hope that she won't need them as bad as I did.

I, Glenn Carroll, will my (always clean) practice jersey to Jack Alexander in trust that he will keep it as clean and odorless as I have kept it.

I, Johnnie Collie, will my ability to get along with teachers and my even-temper to my little brother, Jack. To Betty Gjosund I will my place in the next two years of ski races.

I, Betty Irvine Dees, will to all the new students of Homer High the many friendships and friends I have made in the two years I have been here.

I, John R. Gray, leave my 5'7" to Jim Flood.

I, Stan Harrington, will to Lynn Herndon my place and my ability to scrub the halls of Homer High. To the English III Class I leave all the erasers on the chalkboard.

I, Diana Hatfield, will to my little sister, Dorothy, the fondness I have for U. S. History and American Government and my ability to flunk the tests.

I, Sharon Hatfield, will my interest in Ohlson Mt. to Jill, Shirley, and Pat.

I, Molly Heay, leave to the Class of '64 all the luck and prosperity that I have had throughout my school years.

I, Jack Klingbeil, will all my good grades to Jimmy Williams, and my chemistry and American government books to David Buckley. To Val McLay I leave all the exciting times in geometry.

I, Lynn Kolar, hereby will all of my fabulous bookkeeping papers to Pat Engel.

I, Ellen Murto, will the best of luck and happiness to all Seniors graduating from Homer High School in the following years.

I, Carl Nelson, will my ability to stay off the honor roll to Mike Pate.

I, Kurt Nelson, will everything to Kathy Reynoldson.

I, Pete O'Donnell, will my old gym shorts to Mike Platt in the hopes he may some day fill them. My old books, pencils, and notebooks I will to Cliff Steelman in the hopes that he may some day become a scholar.

I, Kathy Rearden, will to my sister, Mary, my ability to control my temper at all times.

I, Pat Rollins, will my ability to take Shorthand Dictation to Pansy Danby.

I, Mark Williams, do will the turquoise "bug" to Mike Platt, he seems to like it so well.

Class Prophecy

I am the Voice of the Future. I speak quietly, persistently, in the minds of men. The Future, when you get there, and look back, is made up of the Past. I am going to reveal bits of the futures of the Seniors of the Class of '63, as I see it from past experiences.

I'll start with Molly Heay. It seems she discovered, during her Senior year, that she delighted in fixing furnaces. I see her with a smudged and sooty face in a furnace repair shop.

Pete O'Donnell will open a factory, named after himself, as "Super Rat, Inc." What does he make? Why, cheese, of course!

Patsy Rollins will become a great and famous international figure in the jalopy race realm. She's in for many a wild ride!

Kurt Nelson is going to get rich by owning a chain of grocery stores.

Lynn Kolar is destined to join the WAF's. Because of her great love for jets and other fast-moving things, Miss Kolar will be given a medal of honor for performing work above and beyond her call of duty.

Carl Nelson, as is to be expected, will be a president--of the Smoky Bear Furnace Company.

Johnnie Collie, true to her strong predictions, will run an old men's home. I think she is in for a good time!

In the University of Wisconsin, you will find John Klingbeil--oops, I mean Professor John Klingbeil--teaching chemistry which will result in many confused students--and not much else, I'm afraid!

Say! Watch how the MAD Magazine will change in the next few years. If you're wondering why it's going to change, it's because John Gray will be the Chief Cartoonist.

Stanley Harrington will succeed in his life ambition of being a cookie maker, and on a Board of Directors, as he will be the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Red Cookie Company.

For Betty Irvine Dees, I see a very happy future, busily filled with lots of red heads.

Did you ever hear those purposely off-tune songs that radio stations sometimes have spells of playing? Well, the best off-tune singer of all time will be Mark Williams. The reason is simple--he doesn't do it on purpose--it comes naturally.

Diana Hatfield will marry her radio technician, and while he is stationed somewhere in the bush, she'll return to old Homer High and be a biology teacher

I see Ellen Murto playing a very important part in the lives of love-sick teen-agers and harried housewives, through her contributions in the "Auntie Ellen's Advice to the Lovelorn" column!

Sharon Hatfield will never give up, will she? I see her still capering about, only this time on the screen in Hollywood.

As you know, Homer will grow, but I see one portion seems to be deserted. Follow your nose and you will come upon--yes, you named it--Kathy Rearden's own crab cannery.

Melody Belnap will continue her fame in the basketball field along with the other married women on the Anchor Point Huskies Team.

You will find Glenn Carroll floundering with fish in an old tubby boat called the Orland. Where? Up a creek, natch!

Well, friends, that's all I can tell you. You know what to expect now. If I told you more, what fun would it be? So I'll leave you now. Goodbye.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

VICE-PRESIDENT
DAVID BUCKLEY

PRESIDENT
MIKE PLATT

The class of '64 was busy all winter long trying to raise money in order to sponsor a successful and memorable Junior-Senior Prom in May.

The class was in charge of the concessions stand at the basketball games.

One of the main dances of the year, the Halloween dance, was sponsored by the junior class. It was a huge success with hobgoblins and witches setting the scene.

The juniors also put on a successful "Slop" dance after one of the Kodiak games.

The Winter Carnival managers were good enough to give the juniors the opportunity to raise money by using the Winter Carnival Camper during that big occasion.

Our sponsor, Mrs. Miller, ably assisted us during the year.

For the first time in the history of Homer High School, the Mariner basketball team won a berth in the tournament which decided the Western Alaska crown.

Competition in the basketball schedule this season was as stiff as it has been in any year, which found the Mariners on the short end in the win column at tournament time with an over-all four wins and 13 loss record. The keenness of the competition was evidenced in the voting by all other schools which, despite this record, ranked Homer ninth in Western Alaska out of twenty-four teams. Homer proved themselves worthy of higher recognition by challenging the eighth ranked Seward Seahawks to a two out of three game series for a tournament berth, and going on to win in the first two games by scores of 56-51 and 58-53.

One week later the Mariners, piloted by veteran Captain Glenn Carroll, found themselves looking up at the top-rated Fairbanks Malemutes in their first tournament tilt. Fairbanks proved too much for the short, scrappy Mariners. The score was 66-42.

The following day, the Fairbanks Malemutes were disqualified for playing an ineligible player in the regular season. This meant that the previous days' win had to be forfeited and the Mariners moved ahead in the winners' bracket. That night they met the fourth ranked Eielson Ravens. Again, height was the deciding factor. Although the score was 15-14 at the end of the first stanza, an effective press put an end to the Mariner threat. The score was 69-33.

The Homer Mariners displayed outstanding sportsmanship and floor conduct throughout the Tournament. For this, they were awarded the Sportsmanship Trophy. For three consecutive years, wherever and whenever the Mariners have entered a basketball tournament, they have displayed that type of character and sportsmanship which is characteristic of champions in all sports in any nation.

Truly the highlight of the year for the 1962-63 cheerleaders was our trip to the Western Alaska Class B Basketball Tournament in Anchorage. Among our other trips was one to Seward during Challenge Week.

These trips were made possible by the permission of Mr. Wilttrout and Mr. Ronda, the help of Mrs. Jerry Alexander, the backing of Coach Sanders, and the sponsorship of Miss Crockett.

This was an exciting cheerleading year for each of us.

HIGH SCHOOL SKI CLUB

Homer skiers still managed a successful season in a year handicapped by a total lack of skiable snow in the local area.

The Boys' Team missed a chance to retain permanent possession of the All-Alaska State Trophy when we were unable to field a full team. Even so, individual skiers made top showings in races during the season.

The Homer girls showed their strength by placing a close second in the state meet held at Anchorage. Sally Flynn, Betty Gjosund, Johnnie Collie, and Kathy Rearden comprised the team.

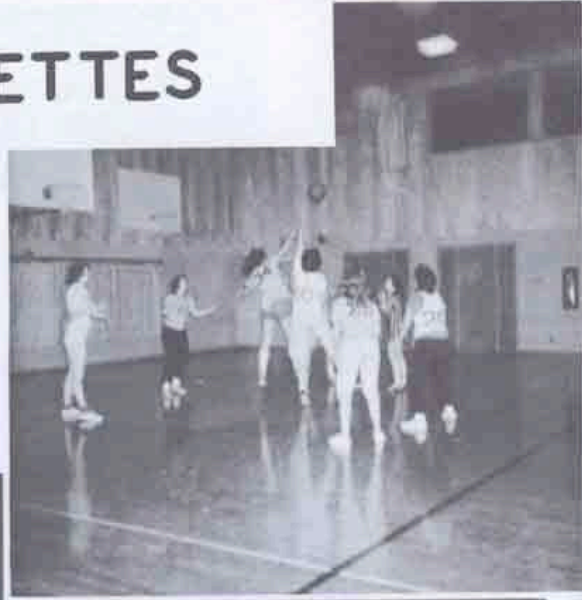

Sally was honored by being chosen to represent Alaska in the Jr. Nationals held in Jackson, Wyoming. She made a fine showing in these races.

Our Homer High Student Council did many interesting activities throughout this school year. They included attending the Student Council Convention in Seward, decorating the high school for Christmas, choosing six cheerleaders for the basketball season, and making new standards for selecting the cheerleaders next year.

Members have been working on the revision of our Constitution and were in charge of the basketball season tickets sale. During the latter part of the year the Council became affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils.

Spanish Club

From humble beginnings, the Spanish Club rose to be a pivot point in this year's school activities. Initially, a trip to Mexico was set as our goal but this will have to wait until another year. Our car wash at Hunt's Service Station was blessed with a beautiful day, many good workers and a line of cars all day long.

The dance which was our next project had a little competition from a beach party but we still had a good time and lots of fun.

Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Edlund were chiefly responsible for the large crowd that patronized our Spanish Supper. Seven or eight dishes were available on an all you can eat basis.

Mrs. Cason did us a tremendous favor by bringing Kay Bright, the noted fashion commentator, from Anchorage to direct our fashion show and to help the girls with their modeling. The high school orchestra played the background music which added just the right touch of sophistication. Mrs. Haddon knit a sweater for the Spanish Club which was raffled.

Next project was an evening course for any interested adult. This was a service which the club offered in gratitude for the community support we had enjoyed. The course consisted for eight consecutive  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hour classes both for beginning and advanced Spanish.

The Mariners challenged Seward and won the right to go to Anchorage. We had the honor of giving a spaghetti supper in order to help pay some of their expenses.

The Winter Carnival Committee invited the Spanish Club to serve foods at the various activities. We deeply appreciated this recognition and were able to participate at all the ball games and the excellent minstrel show.

The last major project for the year is to construct a large anchor symbol in a prominent spot on the school grounds honoring the home of the Homer Mariners.

For the first time, Homer High School has had a pep band. The band added a great deal to the basketball games, both in enjoyment and spirit. They could easily be identified by their bright gold sweatshirts with the band insignia of blue.

The music club presented an operetta, "Girls Will Be Girls," in the last part of March. Although this was an all-girl cast the boys helped with the props and by serving as stage hands.

The operetta was a great success, and the group earned much toward new music equipment. They have bought several new music stands.
